8th Early Summer, Smallbridge, Ravenloft

Lathander and Billy and Sinchi and Moonlock and that human cheese go to see nuns at priory and chat chat and eat cake. They say nuns have black eyes and want us to stay and wait till more boring human chat in day and days time. No one wants mushrooms.

I look for mushrooms but find nice heal herbs instead for tea.

The party meet Sisters Agatha and Mary, and Prioress Mercia at the Priory. All three look like little old ladies but have completely black eyes.

The gardens are very well kept by gardeners who are vacant in the eyes – former solders from both sides of the Falcovnian invasion who the nuns are giving recuperative care too.

The parochial council consists of Sisters Agatha and Mary, Prioress Mercia, Captain Mannin of the watch, 2 other townsmen and is chaired by Friar Melvant. Everyone here does things 'For the Greater Good'

They come back with 2 dwarves who dropped from the sky like us but not in thorns.

They are brothers and argue lots. Oscar likes trees but Oswald thinks that's silly. I think he's silly, holes in rock are more boring than trees and have less mushrooms.

Later priest person Friar Melvant tells us we have to sit learn growing things and take leaflets then they let us out. I say we just give mushrooms but they want to be boring instead.

9th Early Summer

Next day I help brother dwarves by flying and spotting and I see one two lots of dead dwarves who dropped from sky but can't fly. I boo Blaymarch too and he jumps! I think he is People but pretends human which is stupid.

We bury dead dwarves by cliffs. Montegor tries to climb them but they are all sandy and he slips. They go all the way up.

Sinchi has a badger but its evil and one day it will try bite us and Sinchi doesn't know. I laugh and tell Lathander.

10th Early Summer- 13th Early summer

We have to go church and sit still and listen about growing things all wrong. Montegor pretends sick but still has to go. I make image and then go invis and do fun things instead. We have to do this for days and days. Some of the party gain proficiency in agriculture

14th Early Summer

More church and sitting and listening and singing too and more food. They say we can go tomorrow Friar Melvant doesn't really believe

15th Early Summer

We go to thorns with music and bands and humans give us dead trees paper. We are meant to convert the Falcovnians by distributing these leaflets about Solaria (Smallbridge's god akin to Mistray) and agriculture

Thorns open so I don't be wren and then mists and then clearing. We return paper to ground under stones.

Montegor sees lizard but it's not its brown silver dragons. They attack and make Billy and Oswald sick. We kill them. Moonlock does heal. Billy and Oswald aren't so nice now but still People and my friends.

I detect thought and we meet Fox Lady Engilvere. We are in wrong place Kadesse on the Island of Callasse and lots of dragons here and people hungry.

The corrupted silver dragons rule the countryside so agriculture is difficult. There are at least a dozen packs of six each.

Duke Severus de Gracie rules this land, he lives in Collburn (10 miles away). The wizard Baron Wallaker rules the fortified town of Pirrash (15 miles away). This island slipped into Ravenloft 25 years ago. Duke Severus murdered his ruling brother Beodorof with poison. Paladin Lady Aefri of the order of the Silver Dragon came to restore justice but was killed by poison too. She cursed the duke as she died.

We see knight hunting red fox but he gets deaded by dragons. Badger chased dragons which made me laugh as it's eviller than dragons is.

We go to big town and gates and soldiers. I go invis. Directed to Capt Bellathon of the Guard. Guard human tells us Duke can get us out for a favour. Everyone here is thin and might eat crispy fry pixie so I stay invis. They grow green all over roofs. This town is bigger than Nyr'Danr.

Rich humans have trees and food so I sleep there. I see Duke give party- he is giant big and fat and ugly and scares humans.

16th Early Summer

We see Duke but I still invis as scared. Duke wants paper and boring knowledge and us make him fun then we can go.

I watch party to see what fun Duke likes. He likes dancing and music and stories but humans scared. Then he takes 4 humans upstairs and I don't want to talk about next. I feel sick. I detect evil and he is evil evil evilest and I fall. I follow bodies and they are taken to house in city. I sleep next to tree and think of home and meet fungi.

17th Early Summer

I tell about evil evil duke. We try and make plan. We ask Fox Lady Englevere for help.

Some people go to teach growing at palace.

18th Early Summer

Blaymarch and me go to meet Fox Lady Englevere. Blaymarch is definitely elf People, even if his ears look silly. We all chat invis about curse.

Everyone is dead now who heard it. Fox Lady Englevere was child but remembers Severus ruling and Lady Aefri coming getting killed and King not coming to sort it out and dragons coming but smaller then and her town getting destroyed. We have to go tombs to find dead people. (soldiers on the battlefield would have heard the curse. Died in Moventure Year 1342)

Oswald likes tombs. We go in big cathedral but Oscar is sick. I am worried but Moonlock and Billy stay. We go down. It is dark. Oswald finds a dead and hears the curse 'The Duke would suffer eternal torment in a place of no redemption'

Then boom and fire and I fly fast fast to find Billy and Oscar and Moonlock but they are gone so I fly fast fast back and see human hurting people so I shoots him. Lathander is Gorrillan now and big but not ugly like human.

One hurting human is still alive so I shoots forget at him.

We find Billy and Oscar and Moonlock

Montegor was taken and gonod so I take Lathander wand and fly to find him. I sleeps 1, 2, more guards and makes Montegor better . I was going to quiet invis run away but then Lathander Girralland comes and Billy comes and everyone comes and huge fight.

Cheeseman says hide up tower which is good plan, to fly up away but Montegor is hurt again so I stabs and flies all up to get Billy bag and all down to put Montegor in it. I have to wands him again as he is heavy.

I flies up to tower and Blaymarch makes cabin for safe sleep, and I make look like rubble. Everyone is safe but not Brugen he is gonod.

I don't want to sleep inside. Later I fly to detect evil evil duke but I can't see him anywhere which is good as he is evil evil and makes me sick, and we need to kill him. There is lots of humans with weapons and lots of movement and busy. Billy dangles Lathander on rope to window but she doesn't see him.

Moonlock will make me able to do magic to find his sword and I am going to find him and then we will kill him.

Moonlock imbues Kyspar with locate object. She detects nothing on the roof top but as she flies away she detects it back on the roof. She squeals and flies back to warn them – then is surrounded by faerie fire and shot at by crossbows. Polymorphing into a wasp she returns to the fight and sits on the duke's smelly neck to sting him.

Blaymarch polymorphs Lathander and Montegor into Gorrillands and then summons celestial bears. Oberon casts mirror image. Moonlock and Oswald heal people. Billy, Oscar, Ulbrecht, Kyspar, Sinchi fight. Sinchi is possessed and fights for the Duke, B Laymarch is down and loses control of the bears. Soom all the party are unconscious or dead. Oberon makes a final plea for peace but then is killed as well. Lathander is last hobbit standing, and is killed.
